

properties prior to a certain age, and because of that, it's owned, actually owned by the parents until, as a natural guardian for the minor, until that age is reached.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So what is to become of our real situation with the adoption of this amendment?

SENATOR LINDSAY: It would...it would probably not affect current law with regards to...

SPEAKER WITHEM: One minute.

SENATOR LINDSAY: ...with regards to firearms, but it would impact transfers of long guns.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Should something be said about how handguns will be viewed under this provision? Because, as written, this provision makes the transfer of handguns allowable to a minor who cannot legally possess it, because the definition of firearm now includes handguns.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Well, I don't think so. I think the section...by the way, I have my light on, you will be able to continue.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay.

SENATOR LINDSAY: But the...I don't think so because the section is not intended to broaden other areas of law and I don't think it does in what it says. The exceptions say that this section shall not apply to these circumstances. It does not impact any other section of law. The exceptions simply apply to the first paragraph of Section 5 of the bill, which is that transfer...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: The transfer, right.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Right.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Time. Senator Lindsay, your light is on.

SENATOR LINDSAY: I would yield to Senator Chambers to continue.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Chambers.
